Class Representative Duties

ARTICLE VII: CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

- A. No more than the two class representatives are randomly selected by the co-chairs from parent/guardians who volunteer at the beginning of the school year. It is required that at least one of them attend the monthly meetings.

The Class representation shall:

1. Notify parents of class activities, school updates, highlights from HAA meeting monthly via email or reminder app.
2. Communicate with teacher on all plans via email or note. This includes snacks you will bring for class parties and goodie bags.
3. Class representative will receive $40 per student in class. Totals for each class will vary depending on class size. Breakdown is below of what is suggested for each item.

Christmas class party: $5

Teachers Christmas gift: $11.50

Fashion Show basket: $7

End of year party: $5

Teacher thank you gift: $11.50

4. Organize (bring snacks and drinks to class) and assist (if requested by the teacher) with class parties. This includes Christmas and End of School year parties. For Halloween, confirm with teacher. Halloween is not included in the $40). Submit receipt to school office for reimbursement.
  5. Organize Christmas and End of Year gift for teacher. Submit receipt to school office for reimbursement.
  6. Organize class basket for Day of Chance. Class representatives to come up with theme of basket and will let class parents know via email. Submit receipt to school office for reimbursement.
  7. Class representatives to decide if they would like to give students Welcome Back to School, Halloween, Christmas, Easter, or End of School treats. If you are doing this pls communicate with the teacher to get approval. (These extra activities are not included in the $40).
- B. Class Representatives are a liaison to the Home Academy Association and not between teacher and parent, or teacher and student. Any such problems must be referred to the teacher or Principal directly.
